2 different types of case study technique:

- Telling the stories in the assembly, subdivision into small groups, in-depth analysis of the stories, return to the assembly;
- Dramatization technique: after an in-depth account of the case, the conductor choose from the audience some operators who lent themselves to interpret the different roles.

- ❖ The choice of this working method was significant;
- ❖ Confronting and having a sharing space was important;
- ❖ Fruitful moment to stop and rethink the work done.
